DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant should note, in as much as independent claims 1 and 17 have been determined to define patentable subject matter as noted below, previously withdrawn claims 11 and 30 have been rejoined with the application in an effort to expedite prosecution. A complete action on the merits for claims 11 and 30 is included herein.

2. Newly submitted claim 36 is directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: see detailed restriction in paragraphs 3-6 below.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claim 36 is withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

3. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1, 3-11, 17, 24, and 27-30, drawn to a subcombination trailer, classified in class 298, subclass 17R.
- II. New claim 36, drawn to a combination trailer and container, classified in class 414, subclass 288+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

4. Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because at least a defined gap as recited is not required. The subcombination has separate utility such as use for dumping contents into a landfill.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Claims 1, 3-11, 17, 24, and 27-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Re claim 1, "the angle" in the last line lacks clear antecedent basis and could be written as --an angle--for clarity as best understood.

Re claim 11, line 2 of the claim is somewhat awkward. As best understood, --and--could be inserted after "arm" of line 2 to clarify the claim in this regard.

Art Unit: 3612

7. Claims 1, 3-11, 17, 24, and 27-30 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
